

ACCREDITATION CRITERIA FOR TESTING LABORATORIES

AC89

June 11, 2025
Effective August 1, 2025

PREFACE

The attached accreditation criteria have been issued to provide all interested parties with guidelines on implementing performance features of the applicable standards referenced herein. The criteria were developed and adopted following public hearings conducted by the International Accreditation Service, Inc. (IAS), Accreditation Committee and are effective on the date shown above. All accreditations issued or reissued on or after the effective date must comply with these criteria. If the criteria are an updated version from a previous edition, refer to table of revisions at the end of the criteria. These criteria may be further revised as the need dictates.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

Applicable definitions of ISO/IEC Standard 17000 series apply.

3.0 ELIGIBILITY

Accreditation services are available to testing laboratories / sampling organizations that:

- 3.1 Perform tests of its legal entities' own products (internal).
- 3.2 Perform tests of products of external organizations (external).
- 3.3 Perform sampling activities for subsequent testing.

4.0 REQUIRED BASIC INFORMATION

Testing laboratories / sampling organizations must demonstrate compliance with the following requirements (as applicable):

- 4.1 ISO/IEC Standard 17025, General requirements for the competence of testing and calibration laboratories.
- 4.2 IAS Rules of Procedure for Testing Laboratory Accreditation.
- 4.3 Refer to Sections 1.2 and 1.3 for relevant documents as required.

5.0 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION (AS APPLICABLE)

- 5.1 Proficiency Testing Activity: Proficiency testing activity shall be completed in accordance with IAS/ADM/103 IAS Policy on Participation in Proficiency Testing and/or Interlaboratory Comparisons.
- 5.2 Regulatory Requirements: Regulatory entities may place specific compliance requirements on laboratories. If a laboratory is required to comply with the regulatory requirements as may be applicable, they must agree to comply with additional requirements.

Testing laboratories must comply with regulatory requirements of Authority Having Jurisdiction (AHJ) or other regulatory entities, including specific compliance requirements for qualification, licensing, etc., of personnel and operation of testing laboratory.

This clause applies also to any subprogram under the Testing Laboratory Accreditation Program where a Regulator has provided with any additional requirements or guidance required to meet accreditation/recognition status.
